

Over almost 30 years, Islamic Relief has grown into one of the world's largest Islamic NGOs (non-governmental organizations). Islamic Relief strives to end poverty and envisages a caring world where communities are empowered, social obligations are fulfilled and people respond as one to the suffering of others. In line with Islamic teachings on the value of every human life, Islamic Relief provides this assistance to whoever needs it most, regardless of race, religion or gender.

MISSION

Islamic Relief works with communities to strengthen their resilience to calamities, and provides vital emergency aid when disasters occur. Islamic Relief tackles the root causes of poverty and make sure that the world's most vulnerable people have real influence in both its programs and advocacy work.

VISION

Islamic Relief is guided by the values and teachings of the Qur'an and the Prophetic tradition (Sunnah), which recognize that people with wealth have a duty to those who are less fortunate.

HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE

Islamic Relief aims to be the first on the ground when an emergency strikes, helping those affected immediately. Survivors can't afford to wait until funds are raised, and Islamic Relief ensures it is essential to be prepared to respond before the disaster strikes. Islamic Relief works with communities to strengthen their resilience to calamities, and provides vital emergency aid when disasters occur.

They help the impoverished access basic services, including education, food, shelter, water and sanitation, as well as healthcare in the long-term. Islamic Relief also works to support orphans and children, help people get jobs and build livelihoods to support their families, and protect vulnerable communities from future disasters, preventing the loss of lives and property.
